Favorite Bible Story: When Jesus calms the storm. When he got into the boat with the disciples he simply told them to go to the other side of the lake. In route the storm arose and nearly sank their boat, until Jesus calmed the storm. This mirrors our lives, Jesus never promised the disciples the trip across would be simple or uneventful. Just as our lives are sometimes not simple nor uneventful. The constant is Jesus is there for us.

Favorite Bible Story: The death and resurrection of Jesus. Because everything hinges on that. While in India on a mission trip, he found himself in a very rural area and he met a very old Christian man. He asked the man, through an interpreter, what his favorite Bible story was. He man replied the Bible is like sugar cane, its sweet all the way trough.
